A Time Of Trumpets Part Thirteen

“The Restitution Of All Things” Part Two

For those of us that have heard the trumpet sound within our being it is imperative that we understand fully why the Lord has drawn us aside, out of the masses of humanity and religious communities, into this particular revelation at this time. What is it that the Lord wants to accomplish through us that He is not going to do through the other realms of His kingdom? After all, we are the people that have envisioned ourselves as being a chosen people, a holy nation unto the Lord, a chosen generation and order of kings and priests. We don't see ourselves as part of the five-fold ministry of the general assembly which functions as the Body of Christ. We have been like the Apostle Paul that experienced a ‘road to Damascus’ conversion, without having any desire or conscious forethought to come into such a life-changing experience and yet he ended up on the ground and heard the Voice of the Son of God which completely changed the course of his life. It is this type of apprehension that in one degree or another each one of us that walk in present Kingdom Truth can attest to in our own experience. Why has God visited us in such a dramatic way that has been such a departure from the average Christian walk?

The answer my friend, is that we are destined to bring a dimension of spirit life to this world that has never been expressed or manifested by the five-fold ministry. The institutionalized church has ingrained itself in such messages as rapture, making heaven our home, external healings and deliverances, altar calls, prosperity, entertainment, programs, man-worship, bigger and more expensive buildings, social gatherings and so on. Christian bookstores are filled with books, manuals, videos and other materials that expound on all the religious subjects one can imagine. However, none of them deal with those elements that the sons of God will deal with in this time of the 7th Trumpet. The Church deals with external, natural elements that plague their members, such as divorce, addictions, poverty, hunger, racial prejudice, homosexuality, disease and so on. These are all very real problems that the vast majority of Christians face in their lives but they are all manifestations of a spiritual disarrangement in their beings. Something must happen in the heavens in order to cause the earth to be whole again.

There is an end game to all of this. Creation is moving toward a final climax of events that will bring all things together into union with the Father/Creator. A generation is predestined to be the last generation of the human race, toiling under the fallen state and condition of Adamic mankind. For this reason, there is a people that have been reserved back in the Father, appointed to make an appearance in the earth that will begin the return of all men and women back into a prior estate that they had with the Father before the foundations of the world. God's scriptural vision does not include a fly away escape from this corruptible self but it does speak of an overcoming company of sons that have come to be made into His image and likeness by reason of a fiery purification that has forged them into a new identity in Christ. This new identity reveals a New Name, which signifies a new nature, a New Species of man, which entails a new classification of creature, not angel, not mere man, but a God-man, a compound being that is made up of a new substance, neither male nor female, neither bond nor free, neither Greek nor Jew, but a new thing. This New Man is unique, one-of-a-kind, a Corporate Man which is made up of a union of many spiritual and soulful elements in an original arrangement that was formed by the Father in Himself before the fall of Adam.

All of the problems of mankind today are the result of a dis-arrangement of the elements within our being that results in the fruits of the flesh. Our house is divided against itself. We were born into this world with an element of chaos, a mixture of flesh and spirit that has warred against each other in an ancient battle over the supremacy of our faculties. Carnal man is brain driven. Spiritual man is heart driven. In the carnal man, Ego governs his actions and interactions with the world around him/her. He operates out of a self-will, rejecting all Divine influences upon his life. Self is his god and all of his energy and effort is used to promote his selfish aspirations without regard to the damage it may cause to others. Through this self-worship, death has free reign over all the lower elements of this misaligned creature. Death is a separation from The Life Source, a positional state where although God is present, man is unaware of that Presence. Life is a joining to The Life Source, resulting in a full awareness of The Presence and an active participation in that Life. Jesus is the appointed Administrator of that Life and to know Jesus is to have Eternal Life. As it has been fore-mentioned above, in the realms of the five-fold church orders, the work of God is on the external problems faced by His people, but in the realm of Tabernacles and Restitution the Spirit is working on the internal elemental dis-arrangement and it is an internal salvation that is being brought about.

Indeed, we who have been brought to this crucial time of metamorphosis by our Father have realized that the eyes of our understanding are being turned inward toward those unseen elements that are in great upheaval. The external world remains the same as it has always been, wars and rumors of war, nation rising up against nation, the rising and falling of governmental powers, cycles of morality and immorality, greed and lust, love and mercy, peace and war. All continue on in their defined cycles that pertain to the natural world. As the world continues on in this state of extremes it remains oblivious to the war to end all wars that is taking place in a First-Fruit company that will have a cataclysmic effect on all of creation, both those on this side of the river and those on the other side of the river.

2 Peter 3:10-13

10 But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up.

11 Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness,

12 Looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of God, wherein the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat?

13 Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness. KJV

This is not an external dissolving of planetary elements as religious teachers have taught, but it is an internal re-arrangement of our elements that will bring an end to war and strife and will bring about a state of "right standing" in Christ. This event is taking place in a people like a "thief in the night", unknown and unseen by the carnal man. However, to those that have awakened to the inner Kingdom of God, it has their full attention! Restitution, the re-arrangement and re-constitution of mankind, is brought about by nothing less than a total dissolving of our earthly elements. The Greek word that is translated "dissolved" is "Luo", #3089 in Strong's Concordance. It means to "loosen; break up". There must be a dismantling of our inner constitution of elements that has allowed the lower elements to rule and the higher elements to be made of no effect. All of the elements of the New Man is within us right now. We don't have to try to find out how to GET more of God in order to become a new creature. We are filled with Him! What we must do is yield to His divine workings within us to take apart our inner government of Self and let Him pull down our inner strongholds and thrones and dominions that our natural man has enthroned within himself and dethrone the man of sin sitting in the seat of power. In this, Christ does the work, we yield and stand still in Him. One by one He will remove all of our enemies within until there is only one Lord, one Faith, one Spirit found inside.

Although I have said this many times before, I am going to say it again. This dissolving of our earthly elements is not personal, it is simply the business of the Father. God has nothing against us that has caused this fiery action. It is a necessary action that MUST be accomplished if creation is ever to be set free from The Death. He chose us in Him and sent us with this destiny attached to our being. It is a martyrdom. We are Living Sacrifices for the cause of creation and the Father knew this when He brought us into this world. Carnal Man lives this earthly life as though it is the only life he will have. True Martyrs live this life knowing that it is temporary and, in comparison to the Life that is to come, it is like a vapor in the air or a blade of grass that is only here for a moment and then is gone. For those that are called to be a Martyr, there is no place in them for questions like, "Why me? Why don't you pick someone else?". In fact, in the true Martyr's heart, you will only hear this, "Send me."

We are coming to the hardness of this Day. Children's play hour is over. The toys have been removed from our hands and we are now facing the process of maturation and development of our faculties in the realm of the spirit. There is nothing here for the natural man to comprehend or desire. Only those that have crucified the Self Man will be able to continue on in this journey to the New Man. It is not a Day of the spirit of God coming upon our flesh, but it is a Day of the spirit of God rising out of our being and swallowing up death into life! This Day will chafe our flesh and tear up our religious play house. It is a time of afflicting our soul, giving rise to great groaning and loud noises of anguish in the midst of change. What we are birthing in this Day will be brought forth on the edge of death itself, with our hands on our sides as we hear the instructions from the Father saying, PUSH! This Day will not come easily. It is likened unto a fiery furnace, heated seven times hotter, melting the silver and the gold until all of the impurities are removed.

Hear me sons of God! Harken to my voice! Let me counsel you to buy this gold that has been tried in the fire. The great Whore of Babylon would like nothing more than to bring you into a place of ease and contentment, pacifying you with her stories of prosperity, popularity and promotions. We must not lust after her riches and false doctrines. Her promises are empty, void and without power to deliver. Do not be led astray by the tune of her harp, enticing you to sell your birthright in exchange for her moth-eaten raiment of self-grandeur and false apostleships. She is eaten up of maggots that feast on her deadness and her doctrines of devils. She drinks the blood of martyrs and makes sport of the judgments of God, stealing from the widows and the poor in order to pay her prostituted ministers. You are not THAT! Love the Truth and sell it not! Stay the course that God has plotted out for you. Sing the songs of Zion, even in the midst of the fire and change. Let there be no regret in you, no shadow of turning back. Let your heart be fixed in the Lord and press onward to the prize of the high calling in Christ Jesus our Lord. He will uphold you by the strength of His right arm of salvation, for He is the Lover of your soul, your Redeemer and Advocate, His hand is not short concerning your needs and He will not leave your soul in hell. Don't put your trust in chariots and horsemen, neither in the cunning of violent and dangerous men, but cleave to the Lord and His Word. The same God that brought us to this place of dis-arrangement and upheaval will also be the One that gives us a New Life in Him. Even as He has watched over us in His judgment, He will also be faithful in bringing us into His perfection and fullness of joy.

This is not the time for a sugar-coating of the Truth concerning the First-Fruit company of sons. If we are indeed soldiers in the Army of the Lord than we must be ready to hear a clear and unmitigated message of instruction as to what is taking place in Christ. We face these events with true joy in our hearts, knowing that our transformation will bring about the times of restitution that we so long to see in the people of God. So many of our friends and co-laborers in God have laid down their natural lives in recent years, including my own dear Charlotte, in order to take up a new position of ministry in the spiritual realm. I know without a doubt that God is strengthening both realms with a strategic placing of such tremendous ministries for the events that are at hand. They who have passed on have finished their earthly course and are now the recipients of the work of Christ being wrought in our vessels. Restitution begins on this side of the river, but it will be seen on that side of the river as a result, simultaneously. Once something happens in one realm in God, it is also realized in the other realm as the Governmental reign of Christ extends each precedential action in the lives of His people upon the earth into the lives of those that are witnessing such events from the invisible realm. However, it is only on this side of the river where precedents are manifested. In other words, we are not gazing at the heavens to see a change coming to us from those that have laid their bodies down, but THEY are the surrounding witnesses that look into this realm to see and participate in these wondrous events. That is why we must not shirk the calling that is upon us in this time of the 7th Trumpet. The sound is being heard in both heaven and earth, the present and the absent, both sides of the river.

In Daniel 12th chapter, Daniel sees 2 men, one on the one side of the river and the other on the other side of the river. He also sees a third man, dressed in linen, standing UPON the waters, not IN the river. This signifies his authority and dominion over the power of the waters, meaning Death. There is a conversation between the man in linen and the man on the bank of the river. This Sound that is being trumpeted forth today is a Sound that is meant to reach both banks of the river, simultaneously. The Message that is being ministered by this Priest in the middle of the river is being broadcast to those on both sides. God is forming a Melchizedek Priesthood today that He is positioning BETWEEN the seen and the unseen, the dead and the living. This Priesthood is not a part of the living and it is not a part of the dead, but is in a place in the MIDDLE, not limited by this present world and not limited as a mere witness to these events. This is a glorified state that is best represented by Jesus before His resurrection. Arisen but not ascended. God is not going to raise His King/Priest order into heaven while His judgments take place in the earth. This King/Priest order IS the judgment of God in the earth! They are IN the world, but not OF the world. They are the voice of the Resurrection, the Man in the middle of the river, a multidimensional administration of the Kingdom of God. Their purpose is to bring the Restitution of all things, to cast down and pluck up the roots of Babylon from the hearts of the saints and to destroy the abominations committed by the Babylonian Empire of Religions. Babylon is alive and well right now! So many have been deceived thinking that Babylon only relates the Catholic Church. It goes way beyond a Roman Catholicism. The doctrines of the Catholic Church have been reproduced throughout the world's religions, disguised and hidden by cunning terms and doctrines that espouse to be Non-Babylonian but bear the same DNA as the Mother Church. Denominational and Non-Denominational churches use the same polluted doctrines that Babylon uses that feeds the religious systems that fleece the people of God and make their ministers into wolves in sheep clothing. These subliminal messages include brain-washing methods that instill fear into each member of their money-making conglomerate by threatening the people with eternal damnation, being left behind and at the mercy of the Anti-Christ, enveloping the people in a social and economic dependency upon them and then threatening to leave them destitute and alone if they dare to question their doctrines and policies. Babylon's ministries are given a position of authority over all the details of the member's lives, demanding lordship over them by the so-called anointing of God. They set up a hierarchy of ministry that feeds upon itself, setting one ministry over another ministry in a vicious circle of competitiveness that centers around how many members each one has and how much money they have coming in. Abominations! To make it so much worse, the people know it is so! But they love to have it this way, so they can hobnob with the ministries like celebrities in Hollywood. Listen to me dear ones, this is not the Kingdom of God in action. It is a kingdom all right, but it is not the Kingdom of Jesus Christ. It is the kingdom of MEN! Stay away from it. Have nothing to do with it. There is death in the pot and God's judgment is set for it and those that are the purveyors of such Babylonian practices.

We must go to the mountain top and seek the Lord. There are still those in our midst that have not bowed the knee to the pressure and temptation of being a part of such a defilement. God has had a personal and intimate hand in the lives of the chosen saints and He has protected them from such wiles and chicanery. There is a people whose hearts are pure before the Lord and they pant after Him. The following scripture is a song for the sons of Korah who were appointed to minister before the Lord and be separate from the other priests and is a psalm of consolation.

Ps 42:1-43:1

42 To the chief Musician, Maschil, for the sons of Korah. As the hart panteth after the water brooks, so panteth my soul after thee, O God.

2 My soul thirsteth for God, for the living God: when shall I come and appear before God?

3 My tears have been my meat day and night, while they continually say unto me, Where is thy God?

4 When I remember these things, I pour out my soul in me: for I had gone with the multitude, I went with them to the house of God, with the voice of joy and praise, with a multitude that kept holyday.

5 Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted in me? hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise him for the help of his countenance.

6 O my God, my soul is cast down within me: therefore will I remember thee from the land of Jordan, and of the Hermonites, from the hill Mizar.

7 Deep calleth unto deep at the noise of thy waterspouts: all thy waves and thy billows are gone over me.

8 Yet the Lord will command his lovingkindness in the daytime, and in the night his song shall be with me, and my prayer unto the God of my life.

9 I will say unto God my rock, Why hast thou forgotten me? why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?

10 As with a sword in my bones, mine enemies reproach me; while they say daily unto me, Where is thy God?

11 Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise him, who is the health of my countenance, and my God. KJV

Certainly, in the midst of such a perverse and wicked generation the Lord has planted His seed of the New Man in Christ, that through this seed He might turn the hearts of His people from the evils of men toward the outshining of the radiance of Jesus Christ. In truth, for those that have dwelt in the shadows of death there is sprung up a great light. Because of the hope of the Gospel, we know that He lights every one that comes into the world. In every man, no matter how dark the soul, no matter how perverse the mind, God resides in their being, ready to be revealed at the sound of the Trumpet and the Voice of the Archangel. Recently, I revisited the writings of my dear friend, J Preston Eby, in His Series entitled, "Echoes From Eden." As usual, when reading Bro. Eby's writings and all other anointed, holy spirit inspired writings, I find it impossible to read a large amount at one time. To do so, would be akin to ordering a meal at a 5 star restaurant, prepared by a Master Chef putting all of his skill and talent toward the preparation of the meal, and upon the waiter serving this sumptuous and palatable meal to my table, thereupon wolfing it down in huge bites. Or, ordering a vintage wine, thereupon uncorking said bottle and drinking it down like a bottle of water. Some things you just have to take your time with, enjoying the flavors and textures of the food and drink, smelling it, viewing it and then delicately tasting it in its fullness of pleasures. Now, if you are eating at IHOP, then, of course, feel free to wolf and gulp. But with Eby and Roach and others that God has blessed us with in feeding our soul, please, delicate bites. In taking us to our beginnings in God, Bro. Eby was showing how that without the beginning, there would be no future end, for the end of things is found in the beginning. He then quoted this wonderful verse.

2 Cor 4:6

6 For God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. KJV

Upon reading this verse, I realized a most wonderful thing. God commanded the light to shine OUT OF DARKNESS, not INTO the darkness from an external place. That Light has shined IN our hearts, not INTO our hearts. Light was already there, in the midst of darkness, waiting to SHINE! Light is always present! It is present in every heart, no matter the state or condition of the vessel, Light is always ready to reveal itself to the darkened being. Even so, I have great hope for the world itself and also the captives of Babylon, although I do believe that however long it takes for the Light to shine in the darkness of the unbeliever, it will be even longer of a time for that Light to shine in the heart of the religious deceiver. But shine it will! In the ages to come, the progressive revelation of Jesus Christ for His creation will inexorably work its way throughout God's creation until every knee has bowed and every tongue has confessed to His Lordship.

For 2,000 years the Gospel has been in the earth, the sound of it having gone out to the whole world. Every man, woman and child knows the Sound of the Gospel. They were with that Sound in the beginning, enveloped by it, quickened by it, enthralled by it. It is not a strange sound to the spirit of man because it was in his beginnings. At the end of time, every man will again know that Sound, a song that signals a homecoming to the wandering soul. The Sound of the Gospel isn't just now beginning, it has been sounding since the beginning. It formed the worlds, brought forth life out of the sea, gave authority to man, male and female, and told them to multiply and take dominion over the animal world. That Sound formed Adam from the dust of the earth, breathed into Him the Life of God and made him a living soul. That Sound visited mankind through the ages, making covenant with him, drawing him aside to wonders such as a bush on fire and yet not consumed, giving man The Law, giving man the time of Judges, the time of prophets and kings and visionaries. That Sound brought forth the Son of God out of a virgin named Mary. The same Sound crucified the Lord Jesus, then the Sound echoed throughout Sheol, leading captive to captivity and gave forth the message of the everlasting Gospel. It then raised Jesus from the dead, glorified Him and then took Him from the sight of men into His invisible throne and dominion. Afterwards it came upon 120 believers in an upper room and came upon them as cloven tongues of fire, filling the room with a mighty, rushing wind, filling them with the Holy Ghost and fire. Then, in sundry times, it visited generations of believers, keeping them through times of martyrdom, famine, persecution, scourgings, imprisonments, even times of death. This Sound has been ministering to God's people with the Good News of the Victorious Jesus Christ, proclaiming His complete and utter Lordship and Kingship over every sentence and precept that has been written against this Gospel, putting on open display His unimpeachable position of LORD over every power, dominion, throne, covering, oath, curse, blasphemy, spell, terror that is known to this world and the next. Not only will mankind bow the knee and make the confession of His Lordship, but every principality, governmental stronghold, demon, devil, darkness and death itself will also bow and confess to His Lordship! EVERYTHING!!

Are we ready to believe to the utmost? Is it possible that we are ready to take all limits off the Lordship of Jesus Christ and declare Him Lord of all? It is the time of the RESTITUTION OF ALL THINGS! Again, Reconciliation is for mankind, Jesus having died for our debt of sin and making our account in good standing with our Father. He made up the difference between the 2 accounts. When you have a checking account, you have a personal register that you go by in keeping track of your account. The Bank also keeps track of your account. If your account with the Bank started in the red, then you would constantly be trying to make up that difference, because the Bank is always right! Our personal bank register must match up to the Bank registry. To reconcile your account means simply to match up the figures of your registry with the figures of the Bank. It doesn't work the other way around! In the beginning, mankind started out showing a negative amount, due to the sin of Adam. The Law revealed this to be beyond our capacity to earn that deficiency of funds back into our account. However, according to the Gospel from the beginning, God had appointed a Kinsman to pay our debt, with his own life. In God, before the foundations of the world, indeed before the sin of Adam, Christ reconciled the world in the Father, having predetermined that mankind would not be lost from union with their Father. 2,000 years ago, that debt was signed off by blood, fulfilling that covenant between God and mankind and reconciling our account with God's account. It doesn't matter if we believe it or not, if we want it or not, if we think we aren't worthy of it, no matter what, mankind has been RECONCILED! Reconciliation is not something that is yet to be done in the future sometime. We have been reconciled, right now, right here. We are heirs and joint-heirs with Jesus Christ, right here, right now. Period. Eternal damnation is a mute-point. However, RESTITUTION deals with matters beyond the reconciliation of mankind. It deals with the dis-arrangement of man and the restoring of him back to his original state and condition.

To establish this reality even more in our hearts, let me point out that even from the time that Jesus Christ rose from the dead and ascended into His throne in the Father, the human race has continued to get sick and die. Mankind continues to act out from a dis-arranged being by murdering, raping, torturing, beating, starving and other unspeakable things that have been perpetrated upon their fellow humans. Although they have been reconciled, they have not been changed. Restitution is all about change, from the inside out. It is a reinstatement of our former estate in God before we were "subjected unto vanity."

Rom 8:20

20 For the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope, KJV

Our reconciliation is positional, from God toward us. Although we are still acting out the kind of acts that come from a fallen man, it is by God's grace that we continue to have fellowship with Him. In Truth, Grace is what allows God to deal with our fallen self. Remember, God only chastises, (deals, refines, judges, corrects) those that are HIS. Grace is the bridge between Reconciliation and Restitution. At the same time, we must remember that under Grace, we are still sinners saved by Grace. That is why it is so important to realize that the Apostle Paul, who by all regards is the Chief of all grace preachers, still wrote about a further state of affairs in Christ that goes beyond us remaining in a sinful state, under Grace, throughout eternity. He speaks of a nuclear, constitutional change, a change of NATURE. In that regard, it points toward a restitution for mankind that will make it possible for man to "know to do good" and DO IT! The scripture speaks of a judgment in God where He no longer winks at our ignorance, which is what happens under Grace right now, but where he stares at us with a gaze that expects greater things from us. Look at the imagery in the book of Revelation, when the Lamb of God is seen in the Mount Zion with a 144,000 together with Him.

Rev 14:1-5

14 And I looked, and, lo, a Lamb stood on the mount Sion, and with him an hundred forty and four thousand, having his Father's name written in their foreheads.

2 And I heard a voice from heaven, as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of a great thunder: and I heard the voice of harpers harping with their harps:

3 And they sung as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four beasts, and the elders: and no man could learn that song but the hundred and forty and four thousand, which were redeemed from the earth.

4 These are they which were not defiled with women; for they are virgins. These are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These were redeemed from among men, being the firstfruits unto God and to the Lamb.

5 And in their mouth was found no guile: for they are without fault before the throne of God. KJV

Oh my! What a change has been wrought in these lowly sinners, hiding from God under a covering of Grace! Just look at the attributes ascribed to them. The Father's name (nature), written in their foreheads (the place of will, having no more self-will), they are singing a new song that only they could learn, they are redeemed from the earth, (they no longer identify with their earthliness) they are undefiled virgins, (They have been made new) they follow the Lamb wherever He goes, (All resistance is gone, obedient, in union with Christ) they are redeemed from among men, (immune from the man-life, untouchable) they are the First-Fruits unto God and to the Lamb, (They are the proof of the resurrection of Jesus Christ, the first to rise in His likeness) in their mouth is found no guile, (The Truth is in them without slander or cunning devices) and last, but Oh so meaningful, they are WITHOUT FAULT before the throne of God. We see here the true OFFSPRING of the living God, entwined with His nature and character, if you have seen them, you have seen the Father.

Let us raise the bar higher dear ones. I firmly believe we are better than we have been. No excuses, no pointing of the finger, putting the blame on others, let us just be honest about those things that we have allowed to get in our way and kept us from being a fit example of a son of God. I know the Lord will help us to find that steadfast commitment in our hearts and enable us to be the Overcomers His Word declares us to be. I love His Body. So many have gone through such hardships that I know personally and my heart goes out to them. Let us find our song. I pray you will be able to fill your night times with songs of love and peace, as you allow the Lord of Hosts to cradle you in His arms of care. There has been an administrative change of order in the heavens. God is getting ready to amaze us with those things He is going to reveal to us in this day. This is the best time of our life!

By Robert D Torango

In Loving Memory of Charlotte A Torango

It is with a sad heart that I am writing this letter about the passing of my wife, Charlotte. She passed from this dimension on September 21, 2017. Since I haven't been able to get a letter out to our friends on the mailing list until now, there are undoubtedly some of you that have not heard about Charlotte's passing until now and I do apologize for the shock. As many of you know, Charlotte has been sick for a very long time, facing a multitude of conditions in her body that took their toll on her through the years. Regardless of these physical conditions, she remained ever faithful in her ministry of life and song to the Body of Christ, having written hundreds of songs of the Kingdom of God that have blessed God's people world-wide. Her legacy in Christ will live on each time one of her songs are sung, which in turn will glorify the wonderful Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, whom she served and loved with all her heart. Charlotte was committed to the Ministry of the Kingdom of God more so than anyone I have ever known. Each day was a struggle in her body but she found a way to still be a tower of strength to all that knew her. She was a Mother in the Lord to so many, from the young even to the elderly. For her friends she ministered to on Facebook, she was known as Mama Eagle because of her love and vision in the Lord. For me, she will always be my dear Char, the love of my life. We were joined in the spirit before we were joined in Marriage and she remained my voice of wisdom and encouragement, even to the day she passed. My heart is broken, but my spirit rejoices in her present estate in Christ, amongst the sages of old, being free from her weak and hurting body, soaring in the heavenlies with all those that went before her. I was honored to be her husband, friend, partner and caregiver. We traveled throughout the U.S., going anywhere the Lord sent us to minister to all that were hungry and thirsty for Christ. In the end, her body just couldn't keep going and she passed suddenly and peacefully into the arms of Jesus. Gone from our sight, but ever present in the Spirit. I have so much more to share about this woman of God, but for now, let me say that all is well with my soul and I bow to the wisdom of my Lord Jesus. To Charlotte I say, "Mission accomplished. Job well done." I'll be seeing you Sweetheart, in the bye and bye.

This will be a special 4 day Ingathering into Christ. We hope everyone can come, especially those that have previously attended our Ingatherings in Tennessee. Let the Gathering be unto the Lord! We especially invite all our friends in Oklahoma to come together in fellowship of the Word and Worship. We will be waiting upon the Lord during each service for His direction on which vessel of God that He would choose to speak through. Oklahoma is a hotbed of Kingdom Truth and we know the Lord has great plans for this area. Let us come together in the Lord and look for an outpouring of Life!
