

In Loving Memory of Charlotte A Torango

It is with a sad heart that I am writing this letter about the passing of my wife, Charlotte. She passed from this dimension on September 21, 2017. Since I haven't been able to get a letter out to our friends on the mailing list until now, there are undoubtedly some of you that have not heard about Charlotte's passing until now and I do apologize for the shock. As many of you know, Charlotte has been sick for a very long time, facing a multitude of conditions in her body that took their toll on her through the years. Regardless of these physical conditions, she remained ever faithful in her ministry of life and song to the Body of Christ, having written hundreds of songs of the Kingdom of God that have blessed God's people world-wide. Her legacy in Christ will live on each time one of her songs are sung, which in turn will glorify the wonderful Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, whom she served and loved with all her heart. Charlotte was committed to the Ministry of the Kingdom of God more so than anyone I have ever known. Each day was a struggle in her body but she found a way to still be a tower of strength to all that knew her. She was a Mother in the Lord to so many, from the young even to the elderly. For her friends she ministered to on Facebook, she was known as Mama Eagle because of her love and vision in the Lord. For me, she will always be my dear Char, the love of my life. We were joined in the spirit before we were joined in Marriage and she remained my voice of wisdom and encouragement, even to the day she passed. My heart is broken, but my spirit rejoices in her present estate in Christ, amongst the sages of old, being free from her weak and hurting body, soaring in the heavenlies with all those that went before her. I was honored to be her husband, friend, partner and caregiver. We traveled throughout the U.S., going anywhere the Lord sent us to minister to all that were hungry and thirsty for Christ. In the end, her body just couldn't keep going and she passed suddenly and peacefully into the arms of Jesus. Gone from our sight, but ever present in the Spirit. I have so much more to share about this woman of God, but for now, let me say that all is well with my soul and I bow to the wisdom of my Lord Jesus. To Charlotte I say, "Mission accomplished. Job well done." I'll be seeing you Sweetheart, in the bye and bye.
